MICHAEL PELLETTIERI Printmaking

OFFICIAL REGISTRATION PROCEDURES FOR THE PELLETTIERI PRINTMAKING CLASSES

PM AND EVENING CLASSES:

New students must be interviewed in person with portfolio and must fill out a brief questionnaire prior to registration.

All current students must register before the 1st of the month. Registration is available as of the middle of the current month for the upcoming month. Anyone who does not will be placed on the waiting list.

All students who wish to assure their place in the class when they leave the class must maintain their current status by continuing to register in absentia.

The Art Students League is not obliged to provide storage space in the print studio in cabinets and flat files for students who are not currently registered. Students who leave the class must remove their materials from the studio. Any materials left by unregistered students will be removed by monitors and the maintenance staff.

PM CLASS

CURRENT STUDENTS MUST NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

For current students who leave the class and are registered full time:

At the time of return, they will have to get a note approving registration from Mr.

Pellettieri and may rejoin the class as a FULL TIME student depending on approval and current levels of registration. If the class is full, students may be placed on the waiting list.

For current students who are leaving the class and are registered part time: They will only be readmitted as FULL TIME students and will have to get a note approving registration from M. Pellettieri and may rejoin the class depending on approval and current levels of registration. If the class is full, students may have to be placed on the waiting list and wait to be called by the office.

EVENING CLASS

Part time and full time registration will be accepted but students may be limited as to which part time section is available.
